

FRANK
PARTRIDGE

A George I Walnut Stool upholstered with exquisite associated 18th Century Petit Point Needlework

Circa 1715

22 x 16.5 x 17 ins high (56 x 42 x 43 cm)

A single early walnut stool upholstered in braided and space-nailed superb contemporary petit point needlework in silk and wool with decoration of carnations and roses with a central wreath containing a floral spray, retaining its original colours and vibrancy; the square legs headed by angle brackets with canted corner moulding.