A Chippendale Giltwood Mirror

Circa 1760

37.5 x 68 in high (95 x 173 cm)

A fine quality mid 18th century Chippendale period carved giltwood mirror. The rectangular border glass mirror, retaining its original gilding and original plate, within a design of sweeping and delicate C-scrolls and acanthus leaf, pierced foliate sides with floral garlands and a shaped central cartouche with a pair of carved sheep on a stylized mound and with a shaped and pierced cresting topped by a carved basket filled with flowers.
